EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

3. ACTIVITIES OF PORTFOLIO	1. Co-Opted Members <ul style="list-style-type: none">• I would like to congratulate our two newest committee members Aryan Banerjee and Kane McAskill.○ Aryan Banerjee is our new IT Representative and Kane McAskill is our new Mature Aged Representative.• We are looking forward to having both Aryan and Kane as a part of the AULSS team and to working with you throughout the year to deliver positive and meaningful outcomes for our students.• Both of the successful candidates had a clear appreciation of the role they were applying for, combined with specific goals for the role and what initiatives they would like to implement. This specificity in the goals and initiatives was looked upon favourably in the application process.• The successful candidates also had the experience and skills that were matched towards the student representative roles that each candidate applied for. While broad range of experience is looked upon favourably, experience which is linked or closely related to the role which is being applied for is given greater weight in the application process. 2. First Year Representatives <ul style="list-style-type: none">• At the time of writing this report, the successful applications had no been notified. Successful candidates will be noted in the minutes of this meeting

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

3. Hellenic Australian Lawyers (HAL) Video Series Update

- The AULSS Executive and the HAL Committee have agreed to do a 12-part series.
- The first videos that will be recorded will be on the following topics:
 - Chief Justice on Criminal Law, Associateships and Step Up to the Bar
 - Sports Law
 - Maritime and Fishing
 - Medical Law, with a focus on medical negligence
 - Defence
 - ASIC
 - Native Title and Aboriginal Law
 - Space Law
 - Graduate Lawyers and their experiences
- Timeline is to have the first video posted by late April and then roll them out everyone to two weeks.

4. Blood Drive

- General update and calls for committee engagement
- Still in the preparatory phases in communication with AUES and the AMSS.

5. Uniform Clerkship Scheme Update

- I have emailed:
 - Wallmans Lawyers
 - Tindall Gask Bentley
 - Mellor Olsson
 - Commercial & Legal

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

- HWL Ebsworth
- Finlaysons
- DMAW Lawyers
- Belperio Clark
- Cowell Clarke
- Dentons Fisher Jeffries
- Thomson Geer
- Norman Waterhouse
- Kain Lawyers
- I have received confirmation from:
 - MinterEllison
 - Johnson, Winter & Slattery
- Firms not participating:
 - Lipman Karas
 - Piper Alderman
- I was advised by the previous President Belal Salih that this was common and follow up emails are required.

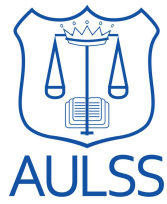

6. AULSS Textbook Fund

- New initiative and considerations:
 - 1. How many textbooks are available online at the present moment?
 - If the textbooks are online, how many users are authorised for simultaneous access?
 - 2. If there was 6 or above authorised simultaneous users for a textbook, we concluded that the textbook supply was sufficient (unless it is a core subject with high borrowing history)
 - 3. What was the borrowing history of a particular book and, in particular, how COVID impact the borrowing of a particular book.

EXECUTIVE REPORTS
COMMITTEE MEETING 2

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A high borrowing rate before and during COVID was a strong indication a particular book is in high demand; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ 4. How many students are enrolled in the course; ▪ 5. Whether the subject was a recurring open law elective, a closed core elective or merely an open law elective that appears every few years; ▪ 6. The opinion of Paula based on the requests of students made to herself and her staff; • The books we concluded should be the priority on our list to provide to our students is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commercial Law (x2) or (x3) • Tort Law (x1) (Has online access but limited to x3 simultaneous users) • International Law (x1) • Corporate Law (x1) (Has online access but limited to x3 simultaneous users) • Labour Law (x2) or (x3 simultaneous users for online access) • Evidence: Commentary and Materials (NEW TEXTBOOK FOR 2021) (x3 or online access) • Anti discrimination and Equality Law (x1) or Sports Law (x1)

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

11. ACTIVITIES OF PORTFOLIO	7. Survey Results <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Merchandise Survey:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• At the time of writing this report, we had 119 responses on this survey• Survey asked four questions:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 1. Do you want the AULSS to re-stock the 2020 crew neck jumpers?○ 2. Which Accessories would you like to see AULSS stock this year?○ 3. Which Stationary would you like to see the AULSS stock this year?○ 4. What Apparel would you like to see the AULSS stock this year?• In response to Question 1:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 56.4% wanted us to re-stock the 2020 crew necks○ 33.3 % wanted a new crew neck design○ 10.3% didn't want a crew neck○ Thus, we will likely re-stock our 2020 crew necks in all colour ways• In response to Question 2:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Tote bags, keep cups and beanies were the front runners○ Key-rings, caps, bucket hats, bottle openers and crew socks were the next favourites○ Magnets, ankle socks, lanyards and umbrellas received less support

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In response to Question 3:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Power banks and pens were most selected○ Wireless charging pads, stickers, highlighters and seeds were the next favourites○ Will likely look into stocking the top three (power banks, pens and wireless charging pads)• In response to Question 4:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Hoodies and rugby-jumpers were the favourites○ A new crew neck and t-shirts were the next favourites○ Trackpants, 2020 crew necks, and puffer jackets were the next favourites○ Will likely do a hoodie and use this as the competition we usually run. We have heaps of t-shirts left so that's great. Because more people wanted the 2020 crew necks to be restocked, I'll probably hold off on a new crew neck design. However, I will look into track pants and puffer jackets as a new additional option• In summary, the items we will likely look at stocking are:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 2020 crew neck jumpers○ Hoodies (done through design competition)○ Rugby jumpers – already stock○ Puffer jackets○ Track pants○ T-shirts – already stock

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Tote bags – already stock○ Keep cups – already stock○ Beanies○ Crew socks – already stock○ Key rings○ Power banks○ Pens● Demographics Survey:<ul style="list-style-type: none">● At the time of writing this report, we had 105 responses to this survey. I did expect less responses here than in our merchandise survey given people not wanting to share their information with us (which is totally fine, the voluntariness of the survey reflected this).● The five questions asked were:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 1. Year of study○ 2. Degree type○ 3. Age○ 4. Gender○ 5. Postcode of Residence○ 6. Occupation○ 7. Do you identify with any of the following? Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse, LGBTQI+, A student with a disability○ 8. If you selected one of the above identifications, please feel free to expand on your answer here● In response to Question 1:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 50% of our respondents were first years

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ 6 identified as a student with a disability• Question 8 also provided some interesting data about our cultural and gender diversity and support needs of our students. However, in the interest of time and privacy I will not go into these responses.• While obviously no major conclusions can be drawn given the small sample size in respect of our cohort, I feel that the survey at least gives us more of an idea of the demographics of our students rather than no idea (which is what we had previously).▪ I will probably put out one more reminder for the surveys this week and close them after that. 8. Office <ul style="list-style-type: none">• You may/may not have noticed that I recently did a small Woolworths/Officeworks shop:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We now have some milks, salt and pepper, green tea and cleaning supplies. Leon also kindly bought us some more coffee pods to tie us over. Divya is looking into a contact which may allow us to get the pods for free (stay tuned).• Stationary-wise, a range of items were bought. I will run through these quickly now 😊• I have been pretty happy with how the office has been looking on the Tuesdays I
--	---

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

	have been at Uni. However, I have heard some feedback from people and so would like to give the following reminders: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• If you use one of the kitchen appliances, please clean it after use (this includes the microwave). If you do not have the capacity to do this, you should not be using the appliance. This applies to non-Committee members who use the room too.• Do not leave any rubbish in the office (this includes rubbish that is not your own). So many times I have walked in and see wrappers, empty juice cartons etc on the table – this is not your desk at home, this is an office. If you have a non-Committee member in the office with you (which should be in limited circumstances, you are responsible for their mess if they make any).• Because we have an open-door policy, think about what you would think of the office and the people using it if you walked past. Laying on the couch with your shoes off (or on for that matter) or having an array of bags strewn across the couch is super unprofessional (also, may I repeat, this is an office, not your home [although it may feel like it]).

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

- It would be incredible if could we follow these very simple instructions. We are a large group and so while you might think your small action means nothing, it can build up very quickly and all of a sudden look like an absolute pig-stye.

9. Rugby Jumpers and Merchandise

- Thank you to everyone who has helped me to sell our Rugby Jumpers and other Merchandise over the semester.
 - I am unfortunately only able to get to Uni in business hours one day a week, so it really does mean that world when you lend a helping hand.
- A reminder that the items we currently have for sale are:
 - Rugby jumpers - $50
 - Left over 2020 crew necks (larger sizes only) - $50
 - T-shirts (navy and grey) - $16
 - Tote bags - $6
 - Crew socks - $12
 - Keep cups (small - $10 and medium - $16)
- Prices can also be found on our Instagram highlight and on our website page. I should hopefully have a price list in the office for you too.
- We have now moved most merchandise into Michelle's storage room in Ligertwood 1.10. A big thank you to Michelle and the St Raph's team for allowing us to do so – it really makes the office look so much better.

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

- However, as such, you will need to go to the storage room if someone orders some merchandise. I will explain this process in more detail now 😊
- We still have a huge range items for sale, so we will hopefully be pumping out some more reminders about this asap.

10. Law School Local (LSL)

- Very excitingly LSL is underway! This has consumed a lot of my time so it's great to see it come to life.
- Our 13 venues currently participating are:
 1. Bakery on O'Connell
 2. Cambridge Clothing
 3. Downtown
 4. Jack Greens
 5. Lemongrass Thai Bistro
 6. Leonard St
 7. Lion Arts Factory
 8. St Raphs
 9. The Duke of York Hotel
 10. The Franklin Hotel
 11. The Havelock Hotel
 12. The Seven Stars Hotel
 13. M.J. Bale
- Check out our website here for more information on each specific deal (thank you to Nic and the Communications Portfolio for helping to create this page).
- At the time of writing this report we have 85 cards sold, but I am sure that this will increase (hopefully drastically) over the next few days with sales. However, that number does mean that we have

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

	effectively broken even on the cost of the production of the cards which is great. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Remaining sales will help fund the other Portfolios who don't really make money (Education, Careers, Comps) but certainly have to spend it!• 5% of the profits will also go into our SJ Fund.• I am hopeful we can sell all 500 cards. Please tell your friends!!• A big thank you to: Divya, Maddie, Will, Bella, Nic, Anthony and Peter for their help last week!• And a big thank you to: Alex, Bhavna, Imogen, Kellie, Sofia, George, Nic, Christiana and Anthony for putting their hands up to sell cards this week! 11. Check-in <ul style="list-style-type: none">• It has been an incredibly busy semester one and we are only five weeks in. So, I just want to check in and make sure everyone is doing okay 😊
12. DISCUSSION POINTS	2. Does anyone have any feedback on how the Office is being managed? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Are there any supplies that we don't have that you think we should? 2. Does anyone have any feedback on the merchandise sales? 3. Does anyone have any feedback on Law School Local and the sale of them?

2. UPCOMING EVENTS	N/A
3. ACTIVITIES OF PORTFOLIO	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. IT Representative Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We are pleased to welcome our new IT Representative Aryan! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We received a lot of interest for this particular role and were blown away by the experience, enthusiasm and goals Aryan had. • He will be a very welcome addition to the Communications Portfolio. 2. Social Media <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Our social media has been continued to be updated with all the events that have been going on so far! • A big thank you to my incredible reps who have taken un the responsibility of other Portfolios and have gone to great lengths to implement all the exciting ideas the respective portfolios have had!

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

- Each rep is welcome to talk about any experiences they have had with communications!

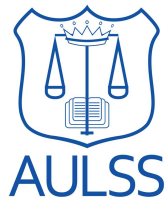

3. Website

- The website again is being updated with 2021 content!
- Perhaps most exciting is the implementation of the Law School Local which we have heard about tonight!!
 - Annabel has done an incredible job gaining interest from many venues and we are excited to share and promote them on our website for all purchasers to see!
 - For reference the QR codes on the back of the cards direct to the page which has also resulted in the website getting more traffic.
- We are updating the 2021 photos!
 - As some of you may have seen the photos have remained from last year.
 - However, Annie has finished editing the photos which has resulted in us being able to upload them!
 - We will see this refresh done by our new IT representative Aryan.
- We currently have three boards running!
 - These are the Careers, Competitions and Volunteering Boards respectively!
 - Please recommend these to any students and know we will be updating these regularly.

	4. Hilarian <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Hilarian will give us an update on Edition 1! • The publication is fast approaching, and we look forward to their satirical spin on the happenings of law school, the wider community and anything else they see fit!
4. DISCUSSION POINTS	1. Are the communications currently received from our various social medias too saturated? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We have been posting a lot of great, informative content but we want to make sure it is not too much for students. 2. Please make sure to like all posts! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I may sound like a broken record but it is so incredibly important to the success of each Portfolio.

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EQUITY
DATE	29 March 2021
REPORT BY	Divya Narayan
17. SUMMARY OF REPORT	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Pancake Sale 2. Wine Pull 3. Article 1 for Social Justice and Equity 4. Volunteer Board and Handbook 5. Outlaws 6. Human Rights Seminars
18. UPCOMING EVENTS	1. Wine Pull <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A collaboration event with The Good Bunch (the company who we originally sourced our wines from). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They donated $200 from the wines we had bought originally to a non-for profit called CARE Australia who work to reduce the number of people in poverty. • They also have initiatives focused on education, on women’s rights, and on health. • In 2019/2020, 91% of their money went towards their initiatives, 6% to reinvest to raise future funds and 3% administrative costs. • Essentially each person buys a wine ‘blind’ i.e. They pay a certain amount of money for a wine that will be random. • The wine will worth at LEAST what people have spent, but there are some more premium wines also thrown in for the lucky ones (getting these, or even expanding your wine knowledge with new wines, is the aim).

EXECUTIVE REPORTS

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We would get $40 for every box of wines that we buy/sell and this money would essentially fundraise for the Social Justice Fund. It is likely that some, or all, of the money will be donated to the Walk for Justice initiative.
19. ACTIVITIES OF PORTFOLIO	2. Pancake Sale <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Thank you so much to Aditi and Maddie in particular for setting up the station with me, handling all the cooking and sales of Merch when I ducked off to a seminar, and for sticking around for the whole day. We were active from around 11:30-3pm on the day with customers coming in waves both from the careers fair and from general classes. Most popular topping- Nutella? (P.s. there is a jar in the fridge for free use). We made roughly around $120 dollars and spent around $80 dollars (with some of the ingredients not fully being used, and some being utensils etc). Minor profit but still something! Sold a significant amount of merchandise- a lot of people asking about rugby jumpers and other clothing in other sizes. Note that these are stored in a storage room where Alex has the key for it and have to be specifically accessed. 3. Article 1 For Social Justice and Equity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I would like to extend a round of applause for Alex who has written a really fantastic, insightful, and academic article on the

	freedom of speech. This can be found on our website. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• These articles are part of the new SJ&E initiative to really branch out and discuss broader topics outside of law school news, and I think this is a great first step.• The next article to be written will be released in Week 6 and will be worked on by Aditi. It will be focusing on recycling initiatives in South Australia. (comes in time for world earth day in April). 4. OutLaws <ul style="list-style-type: none">• I sent out a (fairly lengthy) all school email a week or so ago containing some of our upcoming initiatives, one of which was trying to promote OUTLAWS in the AULSS and try and reach out to people who identify as par to the LGBTQIA+ community.• Since sending that email, we have had about 10 people newly join our group on Facebook, which is exciting and promising. 5. Volunteer Board and Handbook <ul style="list-style-type: none">• We officially released our volunteer handbook as a physical copy on the 15th of March, following the Careers fair.• We also used Bowden publishers to print the copies and we have ordered 50 and placed them around the law school- pick one up if you haven't already!• Feedback on the guides are always welcome, we are always looking to improve.• The volunteer board is also up and running – thank you to the comms team for pulling it all

EXECUTIVE REPORTS COMMITTEE MEETING 2

	together and for aditi for sourcing all those links <ul style="list-style-type: none">• After the seminar on Tuesday the 23rd we verbally promoted the handbook and the board to the listeners – it would be a good chance to get involved in the community especially for those interested in human rights issues. 6. SEMINAR ON HUMAN RIGHTS <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Unfortunately I don't recall seeing many of your faces there but thank you to those that did come, or popped in for a small period of time.• The seminar was run by Maddie and it took place at 5:30p, on the 23rd of March over Zoom. The speaker was Tirana Hassan who called in from Canada/overseas.• Around 25 people joined the call at the peak of the call, and despite a few dropouts throughout the call we never went lower than 21 people (including me, Maddie, and Tirana).• The questions asked by Maddie and during the Q&A were really insightful and engaging, and Tirana personally said that the seminar was smoothly run which made for an engaging seminar.• I have received some feedback from 2-3 people who commented on how much they liked the speaker and how useful they found it- which is always rewarding to hear!• Perhaps there is scope to do more on this topic in the future- seems like there is significant interest from the law students.
