Tips and Tricks

1. Dress to impress

Exhibitors in attendance consider the event to be a professional environment, so you will want to look the part. We encourage you to dress in business attire or business casual.

2. Know the exhibitors

Knowing who the exhibitors are, and who you want to talk to will help you feel better prepared for this event. Inside this guide, we will have a brief description of each exhibitor to help you with this process.

3. Let your experience shine

Speak candidly about yourself and your experiences, and how great of a candidate you are. Be professional, be courteous and be humble! If you do these things, you will shine.

4. Thank them for their time

Ending on a positive note is always the best approach to take. A simple thank you will help display your all important interpersonal and communicative skills.
